THE GRAND 1894 OPERA HOUSE
PRESENTS
RONNIE MILSAP, MARCH 31st & APRIL 1st, 2012

Taking center stage at Galveston's Grand 1894 Opera House on Saturday, March 31st and Sunday, April 1st will be the internationally-acclaimed entertainer, Ronnie Milsap. Concerts are set for 8pm on Saturday evening and 3pm on Sunday afternoon. Ronnie Milsap had his first number-one country single with "Pure Love" in 1974, which started a remarkable run of Top Ten hits. In fact, he didn't leave the Top Ten for fifteen straight years. During that time, he had a number of pop crossover smashes, beginning with "It Was Almost Like a Song," "Smokey Mountain Rain," "No Gettin' Over Me," "I Wouldn't Have Missed It for the World" and "Any Day Now."

Not only has Milsap been a consistent chart topper and icon in the industry, he is known for his highly entertaining live show. His humor is on display with fun stories from his time in the entertainment business, as well as a diverse mix of hits that showcase his amazing musical talent. Milsap's connection to his audience is unrivaled.

With 40 number-one hits, 6 Grammy awards, a dozen CMA awards, including "Entertainer of the Year", and four turns as "Male Vocalist of the Year", Ronnie Milsap is a true legend in the music industry. Don't miss this "Grand" encore performance of Ronnie Milsap at The Grand!

Ticket prices start at $30.00. Call for pricing on Box Seats. Special discounts for group and senior tickets may be available. For information about this and other performances scheduled, contact The Grand's box office at 409.765.1894, 800.821.1894, or visit The Grand's website at www.thegrand.com. The theatre is located at 2020 Postoffice Street, in historic downtown Galveston. The Grand 1894 Opera House is recognized as "The Official Opera House of the State of Texas."
